Meier Solar Solutions celebrates company anniversary with its first symposium and product show

- First 'Solar Solutions Conference 2009' on 14th/15th May 2009
- Launch of new brand image

Bocholt, 27th April 2009. Meier Solar Solutions AG, the leading manufacturer of laminators for encapsulating solar modules, will be celebrating its 10th anniversary on 14th and 15th May 2009 when it holds its first symposium 'Solar Solutions Conference 2009' at its headquarters in Bocholt. The programme includes various interesting specialist talks on the theme of encapsulating solar modules, as well as a 'Stack and Lamination Show'. In addition, the company will be presenting its new brand image with a new logo, corporate design and company website.

Speakers at the event include Dr. Steffen Weise and Stefan Schulz, a graduate industrial engineer, from Fraunhofer Center for Silicon Photovoltaics in Halle, and Dr. Dirk Soltau, an astrophysicist at the Kiepenheuer Institute for Solar Physics, Freiburg.
